Hey ladies!!

ALTAR SOCIETY MEETING

November 1st @ 10:15 am in Room 103

All women in the parish, age 18 + are already members!

= A Message from Fr. Mark =

This past summer Fr. Todd, now Deacon Dillon, and I, were reflecting on the liturgical life of the parish of St. Therese, especially the need for more liturgical ministers, sacristans, readers, altar servers, Eucharistic Ministers and members to sing in our music ministry at the Masses we have on the weekend. In visiting with Connie, who does the liturgical ministry scheduling, she agreed wholeheartedly with our assessment of the need for more liturgical ministers here at St. Therese. This line from the Gospel of Luke comes to mind when seeking more liturgical ministers, "from everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded; and from the one who has been entrusted with much, much more will be asked." My sense is that the Lord has blessed each of us in many ways and because of that, The Lord invites and calls us to the more in His name.

St. John Paul II said often in his pontificate "Do not be afraid. Open, I say open wide the doors for Christ." Is Jesus, inviting you to open the door to Him as part of the liturgical life in our parish at St. Therese? Be not afraid, ask Jesus if he is calling you to be a sacristan, reader, altar server, Eucharistic Minister and/or a member of our music ministry program. Pope Benedict XVI: "The world offers you comfort, but you were not made for comfort. You were made for greatness." We are made for more. And one way to live the more in our life is through liturgical ministry in the life of our parish community.

This past week, I was visiting with our 4:30 pm choir and they are hoping for more young people to join them. I asked them if they have asked any of our youth or young people to join their choir? After my conversation I was reminded of the words Jesus said to his disciples, "the harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore, pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest." So let's start praying with a heavenly and renewed mindset, on earth as in heaven. My sense is that in heaven all are singing, praising and serving the Lord.

The best way I know to strengthen liturgical ministry in our parish is through personal invitations. Let us invite one another to deepen our life in the Spirit at St. Therese by serving at Mass. I will begin by inviting, calling, and speaking with members of our parish community about embracing the greater purpose the Lord has in store for us. If you would like to join me in helping our parishioners, seek this "more," please give me a call.

We are hoping for two readers, three servers, four greeters/ushers at all the doors, plus more people to join our music ministry program too.

Let's live the more in Jesus.

Fr. Mark McCormick

Throughout October, we invite you to explore the Whole Hearted resource from Catholic Charities USA and take time to reflect on your emotional, spiritual, and relational health. If you or someone you love could benefit from counseling, Catholic Social Services offers professional counseling that respects and supports your faith journey.

Following 5:30 Mass

6pm - 6:30pm

6:45 Cinema with the Shepherd featuring The Burmese Harp

Has someone you know left the faith?

This month St. Monica's has been shortened to allow the bishop's movie to take place the same evening.

If you haven't joined us before because of the length, this is a wonderful opportunity to join us in prayer for our loved ones who have fallen away from the Catholic faith or have not yet discovered the graces offered through the church Christ established. Please come pray with us and if you have time enjoy a movie with Bishop Bullock as well.

Trinity Family Services and Adoption

Trinity Family Services and Adoption (a program of Catholic Social Services) recently celebrated the joy of a new adoption. With that placement, our pool of approved waiting families has grown smaller, and Trinity is seeking additional families who may feel called to welcome a child through adoption. Whether you're ready to begin the journey or simply curious to learn more, we would be glad to walk alongside you. To learn more, contact Tristan Marchant at Trinity — visit www.cssrapidcity.com/what-we-offer/trinity or call (605) 348-6086.
