A Message from Fr. Mark

Update on Faith Formation for All Ages

When I became pastor the first of July, I was approached about the possibility of moving all faith formation to Wednesday evening by Bobby Myers and several of our catechists. PreK-5 was on Sunday mornings after the 9 am Mass and the middle/high school faith formation classes were held on Wednesday evenings.

My leadership style is that of a collaborator. I usually lead with a team-focused approach seeking opinions, ideas, and suggestions from others, then take it all to prayer asking for the gift of the Holy Spirit for guidance and direction.

This past summer I formed a faith formation committee to help discern all faith formation on Wednesday evenings rather than being split between Sunday mornings and Wednesday evenings. The new faith formation committee is made up of Fr. Todd, Bobby Myers, Kevin Baltzer, Neil and Kelli Whartman, Alex and Casie Whitney, and Chad Carroll.

One of the first things the committee did was to call the parents of our elementary children to pitch the possibility of moving faith formation from Sunday morning to Wednesday evening. I believe the committee called some 26 parents, and for the most part, it was well received.

The committee decided to move forward with moving faith formation to Wednesday evenings, and at the same time, adding adult faith formation to the Wednesday evening line up too, hence the name was borne,

"Faith Formation for All Ages."

The committee was very committed to the vision of "Faith Formation for All Ages," so much so, that if we were to offer "Faith Formation for All Ages," then the committee felt strongly we needed a nursey to help parents with small children, so they would be able to be part of the faith formation classes on Wednesday evening as well.

We looked at several options, but in the end, we felt the best option for a nursery was using the back part of the chapel, which became a possibility for us, since before leaving Fr. Kerry decided to restore the tabernacle to the center of our sanctuary, a true blessing for our faith community at St. Therese. Thank you Fr. Kerry!

However, by adding the nursery to the back ¾ of the chapel, we lost a space for those in wheelchairs, or needing some assistance at Mass. So again, seeking feedback, I sought out our parish staff, and we decided to move the frontal of the pew on the east side to the west side of the church, with the intention of those in wheelchairs could then back up their wheelchairs to the pew frontal like they do at the Cathedral. This still allows those who need extra assistance at Mass to sit in the first several pews on both the east and west side of the church as they currently do now.

Given the desire of the faith formation committee to offer "Faith Formation for All ages" on Wednesday evenings this challenged and called us to rethink how some of the rooms needed to be repurposed to accommodate Faith Formation for All Ages as we begin this new adventure here at St. Therese.

I realize that change is not always easy for us because it upsets and disrupts the order and flow of things in ways that we have been accustomed to in the past.

As I continue to pray for the direction we are moving in Faith Formation for All Ages, my heart was moved to the spiritual writings of St. John Paul II, who had a strong conviction to his pontificate that discipleship is not dull or restrictive, but a bold, joyful journey of faith. In his 1989 World Youth Day message, he expands this idea:

"Discovering Christ, always again and always more fully, is the most wonderful adventure of our life."

May Faith Formation for All Ages at St. Therese be for us this great adventure in our Catholic Faith. Again, in the writings of St. John Paul II, "Following Jesus is nothing but the Great Adventure."

In Isaiah 43:19 we read, "See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland."

God bless you all, Fr. Mark Mc Cormick

Cor ad Cor

Spirituality Year is a weekly small group gathering of men or women to learn more about the spiritual life, to grow in relationship and conversation with the Lord, and to share faith and the work of the Lord with others. Essentially, Cor ad Cor is a retreat, which begins with the Oremus program from Ascension Press (8 weeks), and then moves into the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola according to the 19th annotation (additional 22 weeks). Small groups of about six people meet weekly with a trained leader for 30 weeks. The cost is $85. Scholarships available. Beginning September 22nd at St. Therese, Tuesdays, Jane Fortsch will lead a women's group from 10-11:30 am & Gail Wingert will lead a women's group from 6:30-8 pm.
Please contact Jane at 605-923-9069 or Gail at 605-430-1190. To learn more or to register online, visit website:www.rapidcitydiocese.org/coradcor

TUNE, TEXT, AND THEOLOGY

AN EVENING OF MUSICAL PRAYER

Join Fr. Ricky Manalo, CSP, for an evening of sung prayer, reflection, and theological insight. Through beloved hymns and original compositions, Fr. Manalo explores the living relationship between melody, poetic text, and the faith of the Church. Each piece becomes more than a song—it becomes a doorway into scripture, sacrament, and the shared voice of the assembly.

Blending storytelling, pastoral wisdom, and congregational singing, this evening invites participants not only to listen, but to pray—discovering how tune, text, and theology together shape the heart of Catholic worship and deepen our communion with God and one another.

FEATURING:

Connor Flanagan has been described as a hip-hop artist with a worship leader's heart, passionate about encouraging others to step into God's dream for their life. Connor desires for his career to serve as a witness of what can happen when you don't settle for what the world offers, and instead allow God to breathe life into your gifts. Connor's acoustic roots plus love for hip-hop have allowed him to create a unique sound that is accessible to any audience, and he has opened for Kari Jobe and David Crowder. From driving anthems to acoustic pop, he communicates hope and encouragement to all he ministers to.

Rachel Herbeck is the Director of Young Adult Discipleship for Renewal Ministries and hosts Burning Hearts, a daily podcast and radio program. She received her degree in Catholic Studies from the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Minnesota. She has worked extensively in youth ministry and speaks to youth and young adults at retreats, conferences, and events in the US and Canada. Rachel is passionate about life issues and has worked for multiple pro-life and political organizations in Minnesota and Washington, DC. She formerly worked for the Minnesota Catholic Conference, doing outreach and lobbying for the Catholic Bishops of Minnesota. She currently resides in Plymouth, Michigan.

Celebrate Priesthood Sunday – September 27, 2026

Join us in celebrating Priesthood Sunday, a special day to thank God for the gift of the priesthood, honor our priests, and pray for future vocations. Much like Father's Day, this is an opportunity to express our heartfelt gratitude to the spiritual fathers who guide, serve and pray for us every day. Take a moment to let your pastor know how much you appreciate his ministry whether it's through a thoughtful note, a phone call, a spiritual bouquet, a home-cooked meal, or a gift card to his favorite restaurant. And don't forget about our retired priests and those who have served our parish in the past. This nationwide celebration is sponsored by the USA Council of Serra International and the Serra International Foundation. For more ideas on how to recognize and support our priests, visit the Serra Club's website: https://serraspark.org/tools-new/priesthood-sunday/
